Puck Illustration Collection

A Finding Aid to the Collection in the
Helen Farr Sloan Library & Archives, Delaware Art Museum

Extent
1.5 linear feet

Processed
Sarena Deglin, 2004

Contents
Centerfold, front-cover, and internal illustrations from both the American and German editions of Puck, spanning the years 1876-c.1901

Access Restrictions
Unrestricted

Contact Information
Helen Farr Sloan Library & Archives
Delaware Art Museum
2301 Kentmere Parkway
Wilmington, DE 19806
(302) 571-9590
hfslibrary@delart.org

Preferred Citation
Puck Illustration Collection, Helen Farr Sloan Library & Archives, Delaware Art Museum

Copyright Information
Copyright has not been assigned to the Delaware Art Museum. Permission for publication is given on behalf of the Museum as the owner of the physical items and is not intended to include or imply permission of the copyright holder, which also must be obtained.
History of Puck

Puck was founded by Austrian-born cartoonist Joseph Keppler and his partners as a German-language publication in 1876. The magazine took its name from the blithe spirit of Shakespeare’s A Midsummer Night’s Dream, along with its motto: “What fools these mortality be!” Puck looked different than other magazines of the day. It employed lithography in place of wood engraving and offered three cartoons instead of the usual one. The cartoons were initially printed in black and white, but later several tints were added, and soon the magazine burst into full, eye-catching color. Puck’s first English-language edition in 1877 made it a major competitor of the already established illustrated news magazines of the day, Frank Leslie’s Illustrated Newspaper, Keppler’s former employer, and Harper’s Weekly. Puck attracted an appreciative audience. Its pro-Cleveland cartoons in 1884 may well have contributed to the Democratic candidate’s narrow victory in the presidential election. The Republicans responded by buying Puck’s weak rival, Judge, and luring away some of Puck’s talented staff. Within a few years, Judge supplanted Puck as the leading humor magazine. The magazine was purchased by William Randolph Hearst in 1917. It became a fortnightly in 1917 and a monthly in March, 1918. This failed to increase sales and Hearst closed Puck in September, 1918.

Title: Puck

First Issue: March [14], 1877. (The first fifteen numbers did not bear the full date, but only the month and year. Counting back, however, from the issue dated June 27, 1877 (No. 16), we find that the first of the three March numbers would regularly have been dated March 14. The second June issue (No. 14) is erroneously labeled "May.")

Last Issue: September 1918.

Periodicity: Weekly, March [14], 1877-June 6, 1917; fortnightly, June 20, 1917-February 5, 1918; monthly, March-September 1918. I-LXXX, semiannual volumes, 1877-1916; LXXXI, January 20-September 5, 1917; LXXXII, September 20, 1917-February 5, 1918; LXXXIII, March-September 1918

Sources:
Spartacus Educational: http://spartacus-educational.com/ARTpuck.htm
United States Senate: http://www.senate.gov/artandhistory/art/puck/puck_intro.htm
Organization of the Collection

Series I. American – Centerfold
Series II. American – Front Covers
Series III. American – Other
Series IV. German – Centerfold
Series V. German – Front Covers
Series VI. German – Other

Description of the Collection

Series I. American – Centerfold

Series I. American – Centerfold is arranged chronologically.

Illustrator - Caption - Date - Volume:Number - Page Number – Subject

Keppler, Joseph Ferdinand, 1838-1894 - "Sic Em." Mr. Parnell in his Great Feat of Letting Loose the Dogs of War. - October 26, 1881 - pages 119-122 verso.

Rogers, W. A. (William Allen), 1854-1931 - It Will Be Open. Bigotry and Intolerance cannot Obstruct the progress of civilization -- The World's Fair will be open on Sunday. - 1892 - page 269 verso.

Opper, Frederick Burr, 1857-1937 - The Great Winter Carnival in Culterville. - no date

Dalrymple, Louis, 1866-1905 - Coronation of the Autocrat of Protection, June 16, 1896. - no date

Opper, Frederick Burr, 1857-1937 - A Free Feast for the Congressional Colored Boys -- They are All After a slice. - no date - pages 331-334 verso.

Taylor, C.J. (Taylor, Charles Jay), 1855-1929 - Man Makes the Dress. -- The Arrival of the Struckile Family at the Swellingtons' Fancy-Dress Ball. - no date - illustration from "The Christmas Puck"

Opper, Frederick Burr, 1857-1937 - On the Union Pond. The Mischief-Makers can't spoil the Sport -- the Ice is too Thick. - no date
Series II. American - Front

Series II. American – Front is arranged chronologically.

Illustrator - Caption - Issue Date - Volume:Number - Page Number - Subject

---

1877

Keppler, Joseph Ferdinand, 1838-1894 - "The Country is in a Dreadful State!" - March, 1877 - 1:2 - Rutherford B. Hayes, 1822-1893; Cameron, Simon, 1799-1889.

Keppler, Joseph Ferdinand, 1838-1894 - The Trouble in the East. Puck sends his special artist-correspondent, fully equipped, to the seat of war. - May, 1877 - 1:8

Keppler, Joseph Ferdinand, 1838-1894 - The Great American Dauber at Work. - May, 1877 - 1:11 - Puck crowning Rutherford B. Hayes with a jesters hat, while Hayes paints a shining image of his portrait in the front page of The Sun, May 15, 1877. Murphy - The Model Temperance Orator. - July 18, 1877 - 1:19

Keppler, Joseph Ferdinand, 1838-1894 - Diogenes Conkling Finds His Honest Man. - August 22, 1877 - 1:24

Keppler, Joseph Ferdinand, 1838-1894 - True Inwardness for Utah. H. W. B. sees by the Herald that Brigham Young leaves no successor, and promptly strikes for Salt Lake City, leaving Brooklyn disconsolate. - September 5, 1877 - 1:26 - Beecher, Henry Ward, 1813-1887

Keppler, Joseph Ferdinand, 1838-1894 - How the Tammany Appetite is Appeased. - September 12, 1877 - 2:27 - Kelly, John, 1822-1886; Tammany Society, or Columbian Order (N.Y.)

Keppler, Joseph Ferdinand, 1838-1894 - Dana's Trojan Horse. Dana: "If recruits don't come in faster than this, we'll have to shut up the Show!" - September 19, 1877 - 2:28

Unknown artist - Led By the Nose. - The Situation in France. - October 3, 1877 - 2:30

Keppler, Joseph Ferdinand, 1838-1894 - Freedom of the Ballot, As Interpreted by Street Railroad Companies. - November 14, 1877 - 2:36
Keppler, Joseph Ferdinand, 1838-1894 - The Sword of Damocles. - December 5, 1877 - 2:39

Keppler, Joseph Ferdinand, 1838-1894 - Got Him! - December 12, 1877 - 2:40

Keppler, Joseph Ferdinand, 1838-1894 - The City and the Law. - December 19, 1877 - 2:41

1878

Keppler, Joseph Ferdinand, 1838-1894 - Mayor Smith Ely Weakens on Himself. - January 9, 1878 - 2:44

Keppler, Joseph Ferdinand, 1838-1894 - A Puzzle Picture: "Where is the Pope?" - February 13, 1878 - 2:49

Keppler, Joseph Ferdinand, 1838-1894 - The Crime of the 28th of February, 1878. - March 6, 1878 - 2:52

1879

Keppler, Joseph Ferdinand, 1838-1894 - Out of the Fold. "Oh, dreadful! They dwell in peace and harmony, and have no church scandals. They must be wiped out." - February 26, 1879 - 4:103 - Oneida Community.

Wales, James Albert, 1852-1886 - The Two Machines. Engineer Conkling: -- "Look here, Kelly, my machine won't pump at all, and yours -- ! Why, yours is only fit for scrap iron!' - October 1, 1879 - 6:134 - Conkling, Roscoe, 1829-1888; Kelly, John, 1822-1886; Tammany Society, or Columbian Order (N.Y.)

Keppler, Joseph Ferdinand, 1838-1894 - Political Baby Farming: -- How to Tell 'Tother From Which. - October 15, 1879 - 6:136 - Tammany Society, or Columbian Order (N.Y.)

Keppler, Joseph Ferdinand, 1838-1894 - Police Commissioners' Euchre -- Make It Next! He polished their heads so carefully, that now he is the ruler of the S.C.B. - December 24, 1879 - 6:146

1880

Unknown artist - Too Many Drivers. - January 21, 1880 - 6:150 - Blaine, James Gillespie, 1830-1893; Garcelon, Alonzo, 1813-1906; Elections, Maine

Wales, James Albert, 1852-1886 - Dangerous Characters. - February 4, 1880 - 6:152

1881

Wales, James Albert, 1852-1886 - A Dead Hero and a Live Jackass. - June 22, 1881 - 9:224 - Jefferson Davis sitting outside the secession cemetery, one hand holding a book entitled "History of Treason by an Ex-Traitor," the other grasping coins in a bag (history of treason profits). A statue of Abraham Lincoln is in close proximity of Davis.

Opper, Frederick Burr, 1857-1937 - Bounced Again! - August 31, 1881 - 9:234

Opper, Frederick Burr, 1857-1937 - This is not a Scene From l'Assommoir, nor does it Represent a Man with the Hydrophobia; it is Our Comic Artist, Who Has Been Told to Get up "Something New" about Thanksgiving. - November 23, 1881 - 10:246

1882

Gillam, Bernhard, 1856-1896 - Arthur's Awkward "White Elephant." "How shall I ever get rid of him? It won't do for me to have him on my hands in 1884!" - March 15, 1882 - 11:262 - President Chester Arthur sits on a rock outside the Supreme Court Building, deep in thought as to how to best handle his debts to Roscoe Conkling, represented by a large white elephant, centered in the illustration and demanding in presence. Refusing both a position on the Supreme Court and to take office, Roscoe was rumored to run for the 1884 presidential election, as a rival to incumbent President Arthur; Arthur, Chester Alan, 1829-1886; Conkling, Roscoe, 1829-1888.

Gillam, Bernhard, 1856-1896 - Hyenas at Work. - March 22, 1882 - 11:263 - Journalistic and political hyenas are digging up the grave of recently assassinated President James A. Garfield, searching for newsworthy slander; Garfield, James A. (James Abram), 1831-1881.

Gillam, Bernhard, 1856-1896 - Another Restorer of Antiquities a la Cesnola. C.A. Dana (having excavated an Old Fossil): -- "I guess I can palm him off on the people for their Museum in 1884!" - April 5, 1882 - 11:265 - Tools (wire-pulling, editorials, newspaper cement) and pieces of sculptural remnants (new political footing, popular enthusiasm) surround C. D. Dana, who contemplates appending these pieces to the broken sculpture of Samuel Tilden, which he will later dispose of to the "Museum" (the White House) in the 1884 presidential election. A copy of The Sun, stuffed in Dana's back pocket, alludes to the propaganda in favor of Tilden published in the periodical in order to restore Tilden, "The Sage of Graystone" from an old and broken work of art into a good presidential candidate. Commentary on the charges against Luigi Palma Di Cesnola, custodian of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, for forging false sculptures out of non-homogeneous material and presenting the statues to the public as authentic antiquities. The charges, which appeared in New York art journals and the daily press, were referred to a committee of five men who declared them groundless. Mr. Gaston L. Feuardent later appealed a libel suit against Mr. Cesnola, which, after a prolonged trial, resulting in a disagreement of the jury. This case attracted great attention on account of the extreme partisanship shown by the newspapers during the trial; Dana, Charles A. (Charles Anderson), 1819-1897

Gillam, Bernhard, 1856-1896 - Between Two Evils. The Temporary Man: -- "I want nothing to do with either of you!" - April 19, 1882 - 11:267

Opper, Frederick Burr, 1857-1937 - Self-Supporter Sammy. "Mr. Tilden will not support any candidate whom he has not personally selected." -- Daily Paper. - May 10, 1882 - 11:270 - Two aging Samuel Tildens, dressed identically, are on either side of a barrel loaded with money. Sticking out the back pocket of each Tilden is a sheet of paper that says: "For president, S.J. Tilden. For Governor, S.J. Tilden." Commentary on Tilden's attempt to support political candidates who he selects, namely, himself. Puck anticipates Tilden to run for office continuously until his death; Tilden, Samuel J. (Samuel Jones), 1814-1886

Gillam, Bernhard, 1856-1896 - A Sop to Cerberus. - May 17, 1882 - 11:271 - President Chester Arthur dressed in white robes offering a three-headed dog, representing the Western Vote (Hoodlum, Demagogue and Irish) the Chinese Exclusion Act of 1882. The three-headed dog blocks the pathway to the White House, glowing with the number 1884. President Chester Arthur with political aspirations for a second term in office, offers a sop to pacify the three-headed dog of mythology (Cereberus) the Chinese Exclusion Act of 1882 in order to tame the wild beast, which will allow Arthur to claim victory in the 1884 presidential elections.

Graetz, F. (Friedrich), c. 1840-c. 1913 - John Kelly Galvanizes the Corpse of Tammany - May 31, 1882 - 11:273 - Figure of Tammany Hall lies in its casket, having died in 1880, though it has not rotted but was carefully embalmed and deposited in a handsome casket, and attired in its most picturesque Indian garments. With help of Governor Cornell and the Republican Party and machine apparatus, John Kelly constructed a galvanic battery. So long as he turns the crank, the Tammany corpse will be lively enough; but when that stops, the circuit will cease and it will be deader than ever.

Opper, Frederick Burr, 1857-1937 - The Innocents. "He hain't seen nuffin o' yer chickens -- he's as innercent as we is!" - June 7, 1882 - 11:274 - Central figure of a dark-skinned man/boy dressed in rags, wearing hat entitled "judge whitewashed," surrounded by four similarly fashioned men on each side, each wearing a hat entitled "whitewasher No.1," "whitewasher No. 2," and so on. All are standing outside the capital at Albany. Commentary on the corrupt Albany legislature.
Keppler, Joseph Ferdinand, 1838-1894 - The Mighty Meeting of the Masons. When one's a Mason, however snide, he must aprons place on and collars wide. Then he'll pass from "Labor" - which is swopping grips, with his "brother" neighbor, to "Refreshment" - nips. - June 14, 1882 - 11:275 - Four white-skinned men dressed in Freemason clothing stand as if stepping forward in unison, between two poles labeled "Boaz" and "Jachin." Commentary on freemasonry.

Graetz, F. (Friedrich), c. 1840-c. 1913 - Getting Hot Enough For Him. - July 5, 1882 - 11:278 - Chester Arthur sitting on beach sweating under the blazing heat applied by the Disunion of the Republican Party, represented by the Stalwarts, Independents, Anti-Monopolists, Half-Breeds, Tariff Reformer, and Civil Service Reformer. Commentary on diverging pressures applied to Arthur by the various factions within the Republican Party.

Graetz, F. (Friedrich), c. 1840-c. 1913 - The Agony of the Assessed. -- Between Two Terrors. - July 12, 1882 - 11:279 - G.W. Curtis, representing Civil Service Reform Association presenting opposing demands than Jay Hubbell, representing Republican Congressional Committee, to figure of office-holder seated in between the two imposing figures, tearing at his hair in exasperation; Civil Service Reform Association (New York, N.Y.); Republican Congressional Committee.

Keppler, Joseph Ferdinand, 1838-1894 - British Benevolence. "It is painful to be obliged to use force against the weak." -- Earl Granville in House of Lords - July 19, 1882 - 11:280 - Central figure is the British Lion, one fist representing the Navy, the other the Army, bullying an Egyptian, Ashantee, Afghan, Boer, and Zulu with a Fenian at his heal. Commentary on success of the British in using force against weaker nations.

Keppler, Joseph Ferdinand, 1838-1894 - British Benevolence. "It is painful to be obliged to use force against the weak." -- Earl Granville in House of Lords. - July 19, 1882 - 11:280 - duplicate

Gillam, Bernhard, 1856-1896 - The Irrepressible Log. Democratic Bear: -- "If it wasn't for that Log, I'd have had that honey long ago, and the more I thrust it away the harder it hits me!" - August 16, 1882 - 11:284 - John Kelly, with his 60,000 Tammany voters, blocks up the state hive of wild honey patronage, and the Democratic Bear proper, finds, in pushing the obstruction back, that the weight pendulously swings back against his paws.
Graetz, F. (Friedrich), c. 1840-c. 1913 - For Sale Again. John Kelly: -- Here You Are! I'll Sell to Anybody Else, Except "Blind Pool Men." How Much for the Lot? - August 30, 1882 - 11:286 - Figure of John Kelly carrying a large basket of 27,000 votes to sell to men reading various newspapers on a New York train.

Graetz, F. (Friedrich), c. 1840-c. 1913 - Bullets and Bull's Eyes. Puck. -- Fire away, my boys, and don't let your friendship cease with your shooting. - September 13, 1882 - 12:288 - United States, represented by figure of the Bald Eagle in embrace with Britain, represented by figure of the British Lion. Each is dressed in patriotic garb of their respective countries, each aiming a gun at a target of each other's countries. (Britain aiming at New World; United States aiming at Old World.) Figure of Puck sits aside watching the spectacle. Banner for Creedmoor crowns the scene. Commentary on International Rifle-Match to take place at Creedmoor, Long Island, New York, between British and American rifle men.

Gillam, Bernhard, 1856-1896 - The Merry Star Routers. Puck: -- He laughed too, and yet he died in the penitentiary! - September 20, 1882 - 12:289 - Puck pointing toward an illustration of W.M. Tweed and Tammany Hall, Tweed laughing in the presence of the figure Justice. To Puck's right sits a man, still laughing, this time sitting before the penitentiary where he died in 1875. Beside this man lies a bag entitled "$oap for Juries" with the name [Senator] Dorsey's attached. TO Puck's left sits a second man, with a similar bag entitled "$oap for Witnesses" and the name [Assistant Postmaster] Brady's attached. A leaflet litters the ground with the type: Miscarriage of justice: 9 for guilty, 3 for not guilty; Brady, Thomas Jefferson, 1876-1981; Dorsey, Stephen W., 1842-1916

Gillam, Bernhard, 1856-1896 - Something Has Turned Up! Massachusetts Democracy: -- I -- nev -- er -- will desert Mr.Micawber. - September 27, 1882 - 12:290 - Benjamin Butler stands, with his hat off and a tear in his eye, before a woman and several children representing the Massachusetts democracy, as he receives the Democratic nomination for Massachusetts's governor; Butler, Benjamin Franklin, 1818-1893; Dickens, Charles, 1812-1870, David Copperfield; Micawber, Wilkins (Fictitious character), 1890-1900.

Opper, Frederick Burr, 1857-1937 - Politics in the Pulpit. If Our Ministers MUST Preach Political Sermons, Puck Advises Them to Get Some Points from Brother John Kelly. - October 26, 1882 - 12:294 - John Kelly preaches to a number of men listening attentively while taking notes. Stained glass windows of Saints Tweed, Sweeney and Connolly shine light into the room.
Gillam, Bernhard, 1856-1896 - The Angel of Resurrection. At the Sound of THIS Trumpet They All Will Rise from the Dead! - November 8, 1882 - 12:296 - The figure of Democracy blows a horn, awakening spirits of leaders from the Democratic cemetery such as John T. Hoffman, Lucius Robinson and Samuel Tilden.

Graetz, F. (Friedrich), c. 1840-c. 1913 - Occupation for the Grand Old Party During its Retirement. - November 15, 1882 - 12:297 - An elderly woman dressed in tattered clothing (the "grandmother old Republican party") sits on a rocking chair knitting a giant sock for the independent newspaper out of the yarn of civil service reform. Commentary on the recent victory of the Democratic Party in 1882 elections (New York, Pennsylvania, Massachusetts, Michigan, Indiana, etc.) and the plans of the Republican Party during its "retirement."

Gillam, Bernhard, 1856-1896 - Staked And -- Lost. - November 22, 1882 - 12:298 - President Arthur is sitting at gambling table in defeat as his public "confidence," "popular respect," "prestige," and "honor" is taken away from him by the "Independents." His bag for "Hopes of a 2nd term" lies empty by his side on the floor. Commentary of Arthur's nomination of Secretary Charles J. Folger for governor of New York and resulting loss of support and confidence of the Republican Party for his potential re-election in 1884; Charles J. Folger, 1818-1884

Opper, Frederick Burr, 1857-1937 - A New Attraction at the National Museum. - December 6, 1882 - 12:300 - Puck and others stand in line to enter the National Museum and see an exhibit of a highly emaciated man, the "Democratic Living Skeleton." A very large woman (the "Republican Fat Woman") walks by the exhibit, carrying a bag full of spoils of the Republican Party.

1883

Opper, Frederick Burr, 1857-1937 - The Latest Novelty. "The Gould Game." -- Kick Him Out of the Front Door, and He Comes in at the Back. - January 10, 1883 - 12:305 - A wooden toy representation of Jay Gould is destined to enter the Back Door of the Court House, only to be kicked out the Front Door by the boot of the reigning judge. An oiling can of the World Editorials lubricates the toy to keep the cycle in motion. Commentary on the litigation between Gould and the telegraph suits.

Opper, Frederick Burr, 1857-1937 - Spoiling Their Slide. - January 17, 1883 - 12:306 - Massachusetts Governor Butler scoops salt on the path of children playing in the snow. The salt represents censure, exposure, desire for reform and criticism. The children represent superfluous government employees, manager of insane asylum, factory employee, army snob and others. The children are playing on the "slide of public mismanagement." Commentary on Butler's initial actions as the newly elected governor and public response.

Opper, Frederick Burr, 1857-1937 - Congressional Contempt. Republican Congressman: -- "He is howling for help." -- -- Monopolist: -- "Throw him a promise!" - January 31, 1883 - 12:308 - A man (tax payer) sinks through a hole (needless taxation) in a skating pond grasping for something to hold onto while a figurative Republican and a Monopolist skate by nonchalantly, each with two hands on a common cane (money interest) and Democracy skates his way as well. Commentary on the mutual bond between monopolists and Republicans in Congress; Democrats who can do nothing for themselves or anyone else until they get into power; and the taxpayer who suffers.

Keppler, Joseph Ferdinand, 1838-1894 - Another One Gone Wrong. New York Mistress: -- "Want a new Charter, do you? Take care, or I'll put you up there with the others!" - February 21, 1883 - 12:311 - John Kelly dressed in the clothing of a woman, with the New York Legislature under his belt and the New York Board of Alderman in his left hand, scolds a child-size Mayor Edson, threatening punishment in a jar on a countertop as are E. Cooper and W.R. Grace. Commentary on Kelly's response to a new charter for the City of New York proposed by Mayor Edson. Cooper and Grace proposed similar charters and were punished to "oblivion" by Kelly and his Tammany friends; Grace, William Russell, 1832-1904; Cooper, Edward; Edson, Franklin

Graetz, F. (Friedrich), c. 1840-c. 1913 - An Appalling Attempt to Muzzle the Watch-Dog of Science. "The Society for the Suppression of Blasphemous Literature proposes to get up cases against Professors Huxley and Tyndall, Herbert Spencer, and others who, by their writings, have sown widespread unbelief, and in some cases rank atheism." Tel. London, March 5, 1883. - March 14, 1883 - 13:314 - The head of Herbert Spencer is affixed to the body of a giant dog, lying outside a building with the word "science" shining through the doors to the outside. A pole is in place to Spencer's left, waving the flag "Freedom of Thought." A number of men dressed in black trench coats and black top hats attempt to place a muzzle on Spencer. Commentary on the actions of London's Society for the Suppression of Blasphemous Literature against thinkers such as Spencer, Huxley, Tyndall and Darwin; Spencer, Herbert, 1820-1903

1884

Gillam, Bernhard, 1856-1896 - "Me and Jack." - July 2, 1884 - 15:382 - A man in a swimsuit sits leaning against an upright-seated black colored dog. The two sit on a plank with the man's feet and the dog's tail dipped into the water. The man is tattooed with the words "N. Pacific Bonds," "Guano Statesmanship," Mulligan," etc. the dog has a bucket tied to its tail; the bucket is labeled "pro-slavery." Beside the two toward land is a box of soap: Hurray Soap-to remove tattoo; Presidential elections, 1884

1885

Unknown artist - How the "Herald" Does It. Instantaneous Sketch by Puck's Special Artist of the HERALD'S Special Correspondent Getting his Important Information about the Czar and Gen. obrutscheff. - May 6, 1885 - 17:426 - A correspondent of The Herald sneaks in through a trapdoor to eavesdrop with his extra-large ear on two Russian officials, the Czar and General obrutscheff, as they review a map. The map is illustrated with the British Lion roaring at a Russian bear, with Afghanistan shaped like a lamb in between the two disputing landmasses. Commentary of the press's coverage of and the dispute over Afghanistan between Tsarist Russia and England.
1887

Unknown artist - A Way Out of the Sunday Difficulty. Baffled Policeman. -- Bedad, I can't arrest a machine! - June 2, 1887 - 21:534 - A crowd of men shoves in line for pay a nickel to a machine in return for a mug of beer. A policeman stands by, bewildered that there is nothing he can do.

1888

Taylor, C.J. (Taylor, Charles Jay), 1855-1929 - The Flying-Wheel of France. -- Every One Has His Turn at the Top. - April 25, 1888 - 23:581 - Lady France merrily cranks a ferris wheel loaded with men of various ideologies exalting to be at the top and downtrodden to be at the bottom.

Opper, Frederick Burr, 1857-1937 - The Two Silly Billies and the Hard Stone Wall. - May 16, 1888 - 23:584 - Charles A Dana and Joseph Pulitzer, each with the body of goats, charge against a solid stone wall representing "Cleveland's popularity." Their horns break in the process. The dome of the capital building is seen in the distance; Dana, Charles A. (Charles Anderson), 1819-1897; Pulitzer, Joseph, 1847-1911

Taylor, C.J. (Taylor, Charles Jay), 1855-1929 - The Grand Old Elephant. Manager Platt (of the Pivotal State). -- Here! Look lively! Get up and dance for Monopoly and High Tariff! - June 27, 1888 - 23:590 - Platt prods a large elephant (Republican Party), wearing a bandage around its head marked 1884 and muffs on its tusks, to get up and appeal to the monopolists and supporters of high tariffs, preparing for the 1888 presidential election.

Keppler - The New Sign. - July 18, 1888 - 23:593

Taylor, C.J. (Taylor, Charles Jay), 1855-1929 - "They Never Speak As They Pass By." - August 1, 1888 - 23:595 - Two identical men pass each other, never speaking. One man wears his clothing clean and pressed; his top hat starched and his head high. His sign reads, Republican platform, 1884. The Republican Party pledges itself to correct the inequalities of the TARIFF and to reduce the Surplus." The other man's clothing is oversized, wrinkled, his shoes blackened and his hat slumped. Two feathers poke out of his hat: "Temperance" and "Morality." His sign reads, "1888. We favor the entire repeal of internal taxes (meaning FREE WHISKEY) rather than the surrender of any part of our Protective System."

Dalrymple, Louis, 1866-1905 - The Greatest American Statesman. -- How He Studied the Condition of the English Laborer. - September 5, 1888 - 24:600

1889

1895

Ehrhart, S. D. (Samuel D.), c. 1862-c. 1920 - Modern. Mrs. Newgurl (to Daughter). -- Goodness me, Kitty! Don’t stand there with your hands in your pockets that way; -- you don’t know how ungentlemanly it looks! - April 17, 1895 - 37:945 - An elderly woman, sitting in her chair reading, comments on the attire of her daughter, who is standing before her mother wearing pants, dressed like a man of her time.

1897

Ehrhart, S. D. (Samuel D.), c. 1862-c. 1920 - The "New Journalism" Beats Him. Dime Novel Writers. -- And they used to say that my books were bad for young peoples’ morals! - March 17, 1897 - 41:1045 - A man, draped in a trench coat and top hat, looks quizzically at two young children as they read newspapers reporting local murders and crimes. Each child, a boy and a girl, is dressed in adult fashion.

Dalrymple, Louis, 1866-1905 - The New Field of Labor for the Up-to-Date Divine. Obliging and "Disinterested" Endorsement, at the Service of Every Advertiser Who Applies to Him. - April 28, 1897 - 41:1051 - A man, Rev. Dr. N. Dorser sits at his desk while he endorses numerous causes.

1898

1900

Keppler, Udo J., 1872-1956 - Professor Hadley Wants Ideals in Politics -- What's the Matter with These? - January 24, 1900 - 46:1194

Nankivell, Frank A. (Frank Arthur), 1869-1959 - A First-Class Lie. Englishman. -- You have some pretty high buildings in Chicago, have n’t you? Chicagoan (in London). -- Well, I should remark! Why, the tops of some of them are covered with snow - January 31, 1900 - 46:1195

Glackens, L. M. (Louis M.) 1866-1933 - A Flirtation. Britannia. -- I love you so! Pat. -- Begorra, Ma'am, this is very suddint! - April 18, 1900 - 47:1206

1901

Nankivell, Frank A. (Frank Arthur), 1869-1959 - Evidently Newly Wed. Mrs. Sharpe (severely). -- Norah, I can find only seven on these plates. Where are the other five? Cook (in surprise). -- Sure, Mum, don't yez make no allowances for ordinary wear an' tear? - May 22, 1901 - 49:1264
Series III. American – Other

Series III. American - Other is divided by illustrator, alphabetical by caption.

Illustrator
Caption - Date - Volume:Number - Page Number – Subject

Dalrymple, Louis, 1866-1905

Bad Break for the Republican Sheep. Shepherd Cleveland. -- Well, if they will leave the good, safe road they have traveled so long, there is no help for them! - page 451 verso; color

Even If He Had No Other Reason. Uncle Sam (to pro-Boer crank). -- I can't throw that stone; -- I'm living in a glass house myself. - c.1900 - color

The Man in the Glass House Who Has Been Throwing Stones at Us. - August 17, 1898 - color

Fisher, Harrison, 1875-1934

After the Ceremony. Miss Innit. -- Why do women always cry at a wedding, Mama? Mrs. Innit. -- The married ones cry, my child, because they know how it is themselves, and the unmarried ones because they don't. - c.1898 - color

Ample Time for Jack-Pots. Bluchip. -- Is n't it in Lapland that the nights are several months long? Bluffer. -- Yes. Would n't it be a great place for a poker game! - c.1898 - brown and white

Flagg, James Montgomery, 1877-1960

The Submarine Cable Road. - c.1890s - is this Puck? - green, black, and white color

Gillam, Bernhard, 1856-1896

John Kelly's "Man Friday." - 1883 - page 319 verso; color

The Lesson of the Floods. Leatherstocking, the Protecting Spirit of the Woods: -- "Cut down yonder fence; but spare my scanty forests!" - c.1880s - page 415 verso; color

Setting the Ball A-Rolling. - c.1880s - page 271 verso; color
Glackens, L. M. (Louis M.) 1866-1933

The Favorite. Little Johnny Doubledoo / Ain't as big as me or you! / But they say he 's awful smart / 'Cause he speaks a piece by heart. / He can stn' up an' recite / That about Horashus' fight, / An' he don't forget a line, An' the teacher thinks it 's fine! / 'Stead of bein' good at sums, / Wisht, when Friday program comes, / Teacher 'd like to call on me, / Jes' so vis'tors all might see! - Edwin L. Sabin. - c.1890s - color

"Old Thursday." [Poem by Victor A. Hermann.] - c.1890s - color both sides

Rollo Breaks Up the Natural History Class By Bringing in a New Specimen. - c.1901 - color

Graetz, F. (Friedrich), c. 1840-c. 1913

The Assessment Mania in the Hubbell Family. - 1882 - page 355 verso; color

Brevet-Colonel Mapleson's Brigade. - c.1880s - page 223 verso; color

The Children's Carnival -- The Fashionable Slaughter of the Innocents. - 1883 - page 351 verso; color

Driven Into Exile. - c.1882 - page 51 verso; color

How To Dispose of the Remains of Our Navy. - c.1880s - page 177 verso; color

An Irrepressible Patriot. How General Skobeleff Keeps the Crowned Heads Busy. - c.1880s - page 97 verso; color; duplicate

An Irrepressible Patriot. How General Skobeleff Keeps the Crowned Heads Busy. - c.1880s - page 97 verso; color; duplicate

Left Alone to Blow it Out. - 1882 - page 371 verso; color

Midsummer Madness. - c.1880s - page 403 verso; color

Oriental Game. France: -- "Sacre! When it does drop, you will get the lion's share." England: -- "That's what I am here for!" - c.1882 - page 227 verso; color

A Sensation at the Sea-Side. Brother Talmage: -- "I wonder why the people are all so frightened -- there must be a Shark around somewhere!" - c.1880s - page 339 verso; color

Tit for Tat. Uncle Sam to Bismarck: -- "If you hit my swine, I'll have a crack at your wine!" - c.1880s - page 387 verso; color
Howarth, F.M. (Howarth, Franklin Morris), c. 1870-1908

A Money-Saving Accident. - c. 1899 - color

Keppler, Joseph Ferdinand, 1838-1894

As the Singers are to be Invisible, How Would it do to Have the Voices Labeled with Characteristic Portraits, As Above? - c. 1878 - page 15 verso; black and white

"Blow Winds and Crack Your Cheeks!" Puck (to Hayes): "Never fear, that gale will soon blow over." - c. 1877 - page 15 verso; yellow black color

Civilization. - c. 1878 - page 10 verso; yellow-black color

The Collapse of Two Great Statesmen. Bismarck Turns to the Pope for Help, and Gladstone Turns to Parnell. - c. 1882 - page 161 verso; color; duplicate

Pope for Help, and Gladstone Turns to Parnell. - c. 1882 - page 161 verso; color; duplicate

Columbia: "By all that's addled! That's a pretty chicken!" - c. 1877 - page 15 verso; yellow black color

The Financial Situation. - c. 1878 - page 15 verso; black and white

In The Nineties. - - c. 1878 - page 15 verso; black and white

Elsewhere. - c. 1878 - page 15 verso; yellow black color

The Murderous Policy of the "L" Roads. -c.1879 - page 463 verso; color

Old Tammany (Tweed) Draws Young Tammany's (Kelly's) Chestnuts Out of the Fire. - c.1877] - page 15 verso; yellow black color

The Papal Farm. The Craze for Religious Colonization. - c. 1879 - page 298 verso; black and white

Puck Among the Nez Perces. Puck: "Why is it, great Chief, that thy warriors thus rejoice?" Chief Joseph: -- "Great Father make pale-face warrior Howard stay, fight! Red man heap glad!" - c. 1878 - page 15 verso; black and white

The Republican Dalilah stealthily deprives the Democratic Sampson of his Strength. - c. 1880s - page 167 verso; color
Keppler, Udo J., 1872-1956

The Captive Conqueror. - c.1890s - color

Latham, Rose Cecil O'Neill, 1874-1944 (note: Latham signed her work O'Neill Latham, 1896-1901.)

The Church Fair. [Poem by Joe Lincoln.] - c.1900 - color

The Divinity of the Season. [Poem by Edwin L. Sabin.] - c.1900 - color

Grand Opera. First Philistine. - Why so much of this recitative? Why don't they speak their lines? Second Philistine. - I understand that grand opera artists are never on speaking terms with each other. - c.1900 - color

An Inherited Opinion. Mrs. Gay. - Well, suppose I was a coquette! There's no great harm in a girl flirting a little before she's married. The Colonel. - Do you teach your daughter that? Mrs. Gay. - Why, no; -- it is n't necessary! - c.1900 - color

The Proxy of a Saint. [Poem by Edward W. Barnard.] - c.1901 - color

Trouble Ahead. He. - So Kimmy gev yer a Christmas present, did he? She. - Well, kin yer blame him? He. - No, I don't blame him; but when I see him I'll slug him! - c.1900 - color

To Vain Roses and Ladies. [Poem by O'Neill Latham.] - c.1898 - color both sides

Nankivell, Frank A. (Frank Arthur), 1869-1959

The Annual Sentence. Society in wig and gown / Sat in the judge's place; / The sternest kind of legal frown / Upon her charming face. / She sadly shook her pretty head: / "On account of their wicked ways, / The World, the Flesh and the Devil," she said, / "Are sentenced for forty days!" - Carolyn Wells. - c.1900 - color

At Buffalo. His niece. - Why, Uncle, I can't see that this is inferior to the World's Fair! Mr. Porkchopps (of Chicago). - Maybe not; but you don’t want to let anybody hear you say so! - c.1901 - color

Puck Easter. [No. 1206] - c.1900 - color

Suburban Diplomacy. [words torn off] - c.1901 - color
Opper, Frederick Burr, 1857-1937

The Age of Extravagance.- c.1897 - color

The American Farmer. Various Ideas of Him, from Various Points of View. - c.1896 - color

As Long as We Have Such Conductors -- And Such Passengers --Accidents Will Happen On the Elevated R.R. - 1882 - page 81 verso; color

The Biggest Man in Egypt. The New York Herald Correspondent at the Seat of War. - c.1880s - page 323 verso; color

British Detectives. - 1882 - page 211 verso; color; duplicate

Buffalo Bill's "Wild West" Show in England

Business Brisk. Returning Tourist (to Father Knickerbocker). -- I'm delighted to see that my affairs have been prospering here even better than at the watering places! - page 65 verso; color

The Charge of the City Cousins -- And the "Last Ditch" of the Victimized Farmer. - c.1880s - page 291 verso; color

Christmas-Traps for Poor Pater-Familias. - c.1880s - page 257 verso; color

Civil Service Reform. Applicants for Keeperships in Our State's-Prisons and Reformatories Should Be Required to Pass a Competitive Examination. - c.1883 - page 383 verso; color

The Codfish Exodus to Europe. - page 177 verso; color; duplicate

Comstock is Now Suppressing the Wicked Rural Amusement of "Hog-Guessing." We suggest several other "Games of Chance" that he ought to turn his attention to next. - page 87; color

Country Thrift -- Making Money While the Sun Shines. - c.1880 - page 387 verso; color

Cranks of the Day. -- III. The Secret Society Crank. - c.1890s - color

Disturbers of the Public Peace. [more] - c.1880s - page 71 verso; color

The Dry Spell. - c.1880s - page 143 verso; color
Eccentric Weddings. The newspapers contain frequent accounts of "A Wedding at a Country Fair," "Married by Telephone," "Wedded on Horseback," etc. Here are a few suggestions for novel nuptial ceremonies which would be sure to cover the participants with glory. - page 155 verso; color

The Elastic Conscience of the Average "Honest and Upright Citizen." Inspired by the Anniversary of the Birth of the Father of His Country. - c.1897 - color

A Fable. A certain Injudicious Ape, dwelling in Equatorial Africa, in a Lofty palm-tree, which he utilized for Acrobatic Performances, was in the habit, when annoyed by the Presence of Iniquitous men and women, of casting Cocoa-nuts at them. This only attracted people the more, and they came Numerously, and Scooped in the Luscious fruit with impious Glee. Moral. - Sensational Sermons make the pulpit an A-1 Advertising medium for Vice. - c.1880s - page 95 verso; color

Fired from the Feast. The Harper of Dynamite and Discord not Wanted at the Irish Banquet. - c.1880s - page 143 verso; color

The First of May. -- Tammany Moves Into Its New Quarters. - c.1880s - page 129 verso; color

The Happy Holiday Season. - c.1888 - page 305 verso; color

The History of a Joke. - Midsummer Puck - page 359; color

How Heroes Are Made -- The Western Desperado's Eastern Ally. - c.1880s - page 113 verso, color; duplicate

How Heroes Are Made -- The Western Desperado's Eastern Ally. - c.1880s - page 113 verso, color; duplicate

How Some People Teach Their Children to be Truthful. - 1897 - color

How to Keep a "Girl" in the Counrty -- A Few Hints for Suburban Residents. - c.1890s - color

The Infant Pianist is the Rage. -- Now for Other Infant Prodigies. - page 283 verso; color

The Irish Skirmishers' "Blind Pool." - c.1880s - page 15 verso; color

Jay Gould's Detective Monopoly. Chorus of ALL the Detectives and Postmen in the City: -- "Here is your Blackmailer, Mr. Gould! We'd do most anything for a liberal gent like you!" - c.1880s - page 190; color

Just As Dangerous Now As Then. - c.1880s - page 287 verso; color

The New Arthur. - c.1881 - page 459 verso; color

Not Wanted. Landlord. -- Sorry, I can't let you have the house from next March. I prefer tenants without children. - c.1880s - page 173 verso; color
On to the Horse-Pond! -- A Decoration Day Procession That the People Would Hail With Delight. - 1882 - page 207 verso; color

"Our Congressman" -- Past and Present. - c.1880s - page 15 verso; color

Our Religious Weeklies. - 1880 - page 295 verso; color

Out Patriot-Crank Abroad. - page 241 verso; color

The Patient Private Citizen. He can Smile and Smile, and be a Victim still. - page 403 verso; color

Pinder's Living Pictures. - color

The Seaside Season is Backward and Extra Attractions Are Needed. Puck's Hint to the Hotel Keepers. - c.1880s - page 307 verso; color; duplicate

The Seaside Season is Backward and Extra Attractions Are Needed. Puck's Hint to the Hotel Keepers. - c.1880s - page 307 verso; color; duplicate

Sountry Thrift -- Making Money While the Sun - 1880

Tapping a Fresh Keg. - c.1880s - page 79 verso; color

Uncle Hayseed's Adventures, No. II. -- How He Spent New Year's Day In the City. - page 323 verso; color

Uncle Sam as a "Good Thing" for European Money-Getters. - c.1897 - color

An Unexpected Chance for a Very Sick Party. Dr. Dana. -- "It's almost too good to hope for, Gentlemen; but I think the "Bad-Republican-Nomination Cordial" may pull the old fellow through yet!" - 1882 - page 239 verso; color

United States -- Working for It. Ireland -- Waiting for it. American Gold. - c.1880s - page 193 verso; color

The Ups and Downs of the Anarchist Newspaper Business. - page 127 verso; color

A Very Dull Race-Meeting -- No Public Interest in the Contest. - 1882 - page 63 verso; color

Wanted -- A Bergh for Poor Humanity. - c.1880s - page 393 verso; color

Weather Vagaries -- Fickle June. - 1882 - page 283 verso; color

What He Saw At The Matinee. - c.1880s - page 319 verso; color

When Brute Meets Brute Then Comes the Applause of Curs. - 1882 - page 587 verso; color
When Jay Gould Owns the Associated Press -- Puck Will Still Keep His Independent News-Stand. - c.1880s - page 79 verso; color

The Wise Precaution of Mr. Gotrox. Mr. Gotrom, Having Made His Will, Leaves with his Lawyer the Above Pictorial Documents, to Prevent the Aforesaid Will from Being Successfully Contested. - c.1897 - color

Pughe, J. S. (John S.), 1870-1909

Just Like Other Girls. First Rooster. -- I don't see anything about that new arrival for all the girls to go crazy over. He is a sight! Second Rooster. -- Don't you know? Why, he was the mascot of the 'Steenth Regiment and was all through the Santiago campaign! - c.1897 - color

The Same Old Game. - c.1900 - color

Taylor, C.J. (Taylor, Charles Jay), 1855-1929

The Amazing Growth of the Pension Pig. - c.1887 - page 51 verso; color

Couldn't Place Himself. - c.1897 - color both sides [later edition]

The Maple Tree Inn. [Poem by Richard Stillman Powell] - c.1897 - color both sides [later edition]

Precept and Practice. [Poem by Richard Stillman Powell] - c.1890s - color

The Presidential Donkey-Party. - page 35 verso; color

Wales, James Albert, 1852-1886

The Elevated Railway's Opposition to Clerical Influence. -- A Telephonic Hint to the Parsons. - c.1879 - page 271 verso; color

In Line At Last. - c.1880 - page 463 verso; color

Inconsistent Christianity. "Ho, every one that thirsteth  and he that hath no money  come without money and without prize." Isaiah, Chap. LV. - c. 1879 - page191 verso; black and white

It Takes a Long Time to Break a Pet. - 1880 - page 569 verso, color

The Modern Builder. - 1880 - page 725 verso; color; duplicate

The Modern Builder. - 1880 - page 725 verso; color; duplicate
New York's Dirt and the Way to Get Rid of It. The Citizens Must Literally Take It Into Their Own Hands. - 1880 - page 429 verso; color

Our Free Baths. Policeman: -- Move up closer, please, and let these gentlemen in. Plenty of room inside! - c.1879 - page 335 verso; color

Through Murder to Salvation. - c.1880s - page 451 verso; color

West Point Under Its New Commander, General Howard. - c.1880s - color

Illustrator Unknown

Cupid on Easter. [Poem by O'Neill Latham.] - c.1901 - color

A Desireable Location. The Governess. -- Of course you want to go to heaven, do you not? Little Miss Elite. -- Of course! The best people go there. - c.1898 - color

Fairy Stories. Willy. - When Papa comes home to-night I am going to get him to tell me some fairy stories. Mother. - But, I don't believe you father knows any. Willy. - Oh! yes, he does! I heard him say to Mr. Jolly, the other day, "By George! Tom, you ought to hear some of the fairy stories I tell my wife!" - c.1898 - color
Series IV. German - Centerfold

Illustrator - Caption - Date - Volume:Number - Page Number - Subject

Series V. German - Front

Series V. German - Front, is arranged chronologically.

Illustrator - Caption - Date - Volume:Number - Page Number - Subject

Keppler, Joseph Ferdinand, 1838-1894 - Ein Moderner St. Sebastian - December, 1876 - x:11

Keppler, Joseph Ferdinand, 1838-1894 - Puck's Gallerie Historisch-Allegorischer Bilder. 1) Die Russische Friedensgottin Understanding Ihr - December, 1876 - x:12

Keppler, Joseph Ferdinand, 1838-1894 - Desperate Encounter between Bennet & May, (The injuries will be fully reported in a future issue.) - January, 1877 - x:17

Keppler, Joseph Ferdinand, 1838-1894] - Pleasures of the Season. Wintervernugen. - January, 1877 - x:19

Keppler, Joseph Ferdinand, 1838-1894 - Das Erkennen, "Wie Sehr auch die Sonne sein Antlitz berbrannt Das Mutteraug hat ihn doch gleich - March 3, 1877 - x:27 - Corruption, New York (State), New York, 1870-1880; Sweeney, Peter B. (Peter Barr), 1825-1911; Tweed, William Marcy, 1823-1878

Keppler, Joseph Ferdinand, 1838-1894 - Bur Situation in Frankreich. [Led By the Nose. - The Situation in France.] - October 3, 1877 - x:54

Keppler, Joseph Ferdinand, 1838-1894 - [Title] - October 17, 1877 - x:56 - Kelly, John, 1822-1886

Keppler, Joseph Ferdinand, 1838-1894 - [Title] - November 7, 1877 - x:59 - Hayes, Rutherford Birchard, 1822-1893; Cameron, J. D. (James Donald), 1833-1918.

Keppler, Joseph Ferdinand, 1838-1894 - In Gefahr. [The Sword of Damocles.] - December 5, 1877 - x:63

Keppler, Joseph Ferdinand, 1838-1894 - Aus der New Yorker Berbrederweft. - June 19, 1878 - x:91

Keppler, Joseph Ferdinand, 1838-1894 - [Title] - September 11, 1878 - x:103

Keppler, Joseph Ferdinand, 1838-1894 - [Title] - October 30, 1878 - x:110 - Corruption, New York (State), New York, 1870-1880; Kelly, John, 1822-1886; Sweeney, Peter B. (Peter Barr), 1825-1911; Tweed, William Marcy, 1823-1878

Keppler, Joseph Ferdinand, 1838-1894 - [Title] - January 29, 1879 - x:123

Keppler, Joseph Ferdinand, 1838-1894 - [Title] - February 19, 1879 - x:126
Wales, James Albert, 1852-1886 - [Title] - May 21, 1879 - x:139 - Kelly, John, 1822-1886

Keppler, Joseph Ferdinand, 1838-1894 - Der neue Fulton Market. ... - June 18, 1879 - x:143

Keppler - Des Senators "Greatest Effort of his Life." - August 20, 1879 - x:152

Keppler - Les Enfants Terribles. - September 20, 1879 - x:157

Keppler - [Title] - November 5, 1879 - x:163

Keppler, Joseph Ferdinand, 1838-1894 - [Title] - May 12, 1880 - x:190

Wales, James Albert, 1852-1886 - [Title] - August 11, 1880 - x:203

Wales, James Albert, 1852-1886 - [Title] - September 8, 1880 - x:207

Keppler, Joseph Ferdinand, 1838-1894 - [Title] - September 15, 1880 - x:208

Opper, Frederick Burr, 1857-1937 - [Title] - November 17, 1880 - x:217 - Tammany Society, or Columbian Order (N.Y.)

Keppler, Joseph Ferdinand, 1838-1894 - [Title] - December 8, 1880 - x:220

Opper, Frederick Burr, 1857-1937 - [Title] - January 12, 1881 - x:225

Wales, James Albert, 1852-1886 - [Title] - July 20, 1881 - x:252

Wales, James Albert, 1852-1886 - [Title] - September 14, 1881 - x:260 - Fox, J.; Irving Hall, Albany, New York; Kelly, John, 1822-1886; Tammany Society, or Columbian Order (N.Y.)

Opper, Frederick Burr, 1857-1937 - [Title] - September 28, 1881 - x:262

Gillam, Bernhard, 1856-1896 - [Title] - March 1, 1882 - x:284

Gillam, Bernhard, 1856-1896 - [A Sop to Cerberus.] - May 17, 1882 - x:295

Opper, Frederick Burr, 1857-1937 - [The Innocents. "He hain't seen nuffin o' yer chickens -- he's as innercent as we is!"] - June 7, 1882 - x:298

Graetz, F. (Friedrich), c. 1840-c. 1913 - [Too Weak to Fight -- Too Old to Run] - June 21, 1882 - x:300

Gillam, Bernhard, 1856-1896 - [Title] - August 9, 1882 - x:307

Gillam, Bernhard, 1856-1896 - [Title] - May 23, 1883 - x:348

Gillam, Bernhard, 1856-1896 - "Next!" - July 8, 1885 - x:459
Taylor, C.J. (Taylor, Charles Jay), 1855-1929 - [Title] - June 23, 1886 - x:509
Taylor, C.J. (Taylor, Charles Jay), 1855-1929 - [Title] - December 29, 1886 - x:536
Taylor, C.J. (Taylor, Charles Jay), 1855-1929 - [Title] - February 2, 1887 - x:541
Keppler, Joseph Ferdinand, 1838-1894 - [Title] - February 9, 1887 - x:542
Taylor, C.J. (Taylor, Charles Jay), 1855-1929 - [Title] - May 25, 1887 - x:557
Opper, Frederick Burr, 1857-1937 - [Title] - June 22, 1887 - x:561
Taylor, C.J. (Taylor, Charles Jay), 1855-1929 - [Title] - July 20, 1887 - x:565
Opper, Frederick Burr, 1857-1937 - [Title] - August 24, 1887 - x:570
Taylor, C.J. (Taylor, Charles Jay), 1855-1929 - [Title] - February 8, 1888 - x:594
Taylor, C.J. (Taylor, Charles Jay), 1855-1929 - [Title] - February 29, 1888 - x:597
Dalrymple, Louis, 1866-1905 - [Title] - March 21, 1888 - x:600
Keppler, Joseph Ferdinand, 1838-1894 - [The New Sign.] - July 18, 1888 - x:617
Taylor, C.J. (Taylor, Charles Jay), 1855-1929 - [Title] - September 24, 1890 - x:731
Keppler, Joseph Ferdinand, 1838-1894 - Der Phonix. - November 26, 1890 - x:740
Opper, Frederick Burr, 1857-1937 - [Title] - April 1, 1891 - x:758
Dalrymple, Louis, 1866-1905 - [Title] - November 8, 1893 - x:894
Taylor, C.J. (Taylor, Charles Jay), 1855-1929 - [Title] - May 9, 1894 - x:920
Taylor, C.J. (Taylor, Charles Jay), 1855-1929 - [Title] - October 23, 1895 - x:996
Pughe, J. S. (John S.), 1870-1909 - [Title] - June 30, 1897 - x:1084
Unknown artist - Title
Series VI. German - Other

[Uncatalogued]

Opper, Frederick Burr, 1857-1937 - "Me Too!" - 1883 - page 607 verso; color